Junior League of Tucson, Inc. Presents 2nd JL Legacy Event: Noche Española

Tucson, Ariz. –The Junior League of Tucson, Inc. is excited to present our annual JL Legacy event on Saturday, April 16, 2016.

This year's theme is Noche Española! Celebrate a night in Spain that will appeal to all your senses. Live music by the band Tesoro, featuring Flamenco, Latin Rumba, and Rock will transport you to the streets of Madrid. In the style of a Botellón, the party will be held outdoors in the courtyard of St. Phillip's Plaza where Flamenco dancers will entertain guests as they enjoy delicious tapas, sangria, and signature cocktails.

In the spirit of a Spanish party, cocktail dresses, lace, vibrant colors, fringe, and flower-adorned hair are all encouraged at this 21 and over event.

"We are so excited for Noche Espanola! Come enjoy a night in Spain with the Junior League of Tucson! Our event last year was such a huge success that we sold out of tickets before the event date! All proceeds generated go back to funding our community programs and training our volunteers. So get your tickets early, put on your best party hat to celebrate the sizzle of Spain, and know that you are helping to build a better community!"

- Melinda McNeilus, Junior League of Tucson President

Generous community sponsors, including Kendra Scott Jewelry, Tucson Local Media, and Tito's Vodka are making this event possible and more fun than we could have ever imagined.
